

Club Re-opening

From Monday 29th March

- Outdoor Tennis and Padel courts will be available for singles and doubles play. The only restrictions on play are “the rule of six”, which means the mixing-in of different players in a session is limited to six.
- 1 to 1 coaching will be available
- No group socialising before or after play
- Croquet reopens
- Clubhouse and toilets remain closed – online booking only– booking from 24th March – no need to check in for courts

From Monday 12th April

- Fitness Centre opens. (gym only-no classes) Same procedures as before this lockdown, with restricted numbers and advance booking only.
- Café bar service to the terrace – rule of six applies for sitting together
- Clubhouse toilets available
- Possible Individual/household play on squash courts and indoor tennis courts. Exact details still TBC

From Monday 19th April

- Our junior and adult group tennis coaching programme restarts
- Indoor tennis courts can be used for junior group coaching. (Any adult use of indoor courts is still TBC)

From Monday 17th May

- Studio fitness classes resume
- Café bar is open – table service and rule of six applies for indoors. Full service guidelines will be circulated
- Possible further easing of restrictions for squash and indoor tennis. Details are still TBC

From Monday 21st June

Assuming that everything goes to plan and the removal of limits on social contact is applied, the clubhouse and all areas of the club should effectively be able to be opened up again. Let’s all hope that this will be the case!

Tennis and Padel—Club Night / Club Mix in Sessions

We are still awaiting clarification on when we can run club night / mix in sessions and any number limits for these sessions. The earliest dates that we will potentially run the sessions will be after 12th April. As soon as we have confirmation, we will let you know.
